

Compulsory Investor-To State Dispute in relation to Pre-Establishment (Annex 6)

1. The Parties confirm the understanding with respect to the applicability of Article 6.21 of the India-Singapore Comprehensive Economic Cooperation Agreement (the “Agreement”) to disputes at pre-establishment stage that in the event India agrees to subject disputes on matters relating to establishment, acquisition or expansion of investments to compulsory investor-state dispute settlement procedures in any international agreement with any third party or parties, India shall automatically extend the same benefit to Singapore under this Agreement upon Singapore’s written agreement to reciprocate and provide the same undertaking to India.
