A BRIEF HISTORY OF THE DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE

A separate Department of Commerce was first created in the Government of India in 1921. Earlier, the subject under the Department were dealt with by the Department of Commerce and Industry (set-up in 1905). In 1937, when the Department of Industries and Labour was bifurcated into the Department of Communications and the Department of Labour, the Department of Commerce also took over certain subjects pertaining to Industries. These subjects were, however, transferred in 1943 to the newly created Department of Industries and Civil Supplies.

2. After independence, the Department of Commerce was redesignated as the Ministry of Commerce and was placed along with the Ministry of Industries and Supplies under the charge of a Cabinet Minister. The two Ministries were amalgamated in February, 1951 to form the Ministry of Commerce and Industry. This arrangement continued for about five years when in September, 1956, the Ministry of Commerce and Industry was split into two separate Ministries, viz. the Ministry of Commerce and Consumer Industries and the Ministry of Heavy Industries. The two Ministries were again merged in April, 1957 to form the Ministry of Commerce and Industry. The new Ministry also took over the work connected with most of the public undertakings previously dealt with in the Ministry of Production, which was abolished in 1957. In 1958, the Department of Company Law Administration was transferred from the Ministry of Finance to the Ministry of Commerce and Industry which was subsequently reorganised into three Departments, viz. Industry, Commerce and Company Law Administration.

3. With the formation of new Central Cabinet in April, 1962, some of the Ministries of Government of India were reorganised. The subject 'Heavy Industries' was taken away from the Ministry of Commerce and Industry and the Ministry was reconstituted into the following three Departments:-

(a) Department of International Trade;
(b) Department of Industry; and
(c) Department of Company Law Administration.

4. In July, 1963, the Ministry of Commerce and Industry was bifurcated into the Ministry of International Trade and the Ministry of Industry (Department of Industry and Department of Company Law Administration). The Ministry of International Trade took over all subjects under the Department of International Trade. In June, 1964, the Ministry was redesignated as Ministry of Commerce.

5. In February, 1969, the Ministry's designation was changed as 'Ministry of Foreign Trade and Supply' with two Departments, namely:-

(a) Department of Foreign Trade; and
(b) Department of Supply.
6. In November, 1969, the Department of Supply was separated and the Department of Foreign Trade was redesignated as Ministry of Foreign Trade.

7. In February, 1973, the Ministry was again redesignated as Ministry of Commerce and the Department of Internal Trade added to it. The Ministry had two Departments under its control at that time, namely:
